After reviewing this stipulation and because I do not have counsel at this time, I am uncomfortable signing this stipulation.

Currently, I'm talking to lawyers to provide representation for us in this case.

To Jesus thru Mary,
Mike Sherry

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Jadean,

As an update after yesterday's hearing, Plaintiff's counsel provided to Mr. Sherry a draft stipulation concerning the proceeds of the sale of real estate yesterday afternoon. Mr. Sherry advised that he intends to review same with counsel this morning. Once we hear from him, we will promptly file either (a) the signed stipulation or (b) a proposed order.

Thank you.

Good morning Mr. Sherry,

I recognize you are not familiar with court rules and protocol but you should not be sending any email communications directly to the judge. If you wish to relay information to the court, there are other means to do that. Having said that, I know you have been cc'ing him on your communications with counsel for Father de Laire. I would ask that you refrain from including the judge in any further email communications.

We will see you at 2 pm this afternoon. I will be sending out the zoom invitation shortly.

Thank you.

Jadean

Hi,

I'm involved in the case of de Laire vs St Michael's Media.

What is the email address I should use to send an email to the judge in the case ?

God bless,
Mike
